★★★ Unseen Passage: Education ("Education is one of the basic needs...") ['23, '24]

পরপর দুই বছর এসেছে। শূন্যস্থান পূরণ ও সারাংশ দুটোই শিখবে।

Fill in the gaps (2023 box: awareness, rational, illiterate, enhances, essential, enables)

Ans: (a) essential (b) enables (c) rational (d) Awareness

Fill in the gaps (2024 box: pleasure, mostly, awareness, society, about, drives)

Ans: (a) mostly (b) drives (c) society (d) awareness

Write a summary of the passage.

Ans: Education is a basic need and is essential for all kinds of development. Bangladesh is poor mainly because most people do not have access to education. Educated people know about health, sanitation and population control, and they can live a healthy and planned life. Education teaches us to earn and spend well, to make the right choices and to do our duties. It helps us raise crops, store food, protect the environment and carry out social responsibilities. Above all, it gives us a rational attitude and awareness, which is necessary for social development.

★★ Unseen Passage: Socrates ['22]

Fill in the gaps (box: Athens, spread, sculptor, scientist, philosopher, Rome)

Ans: (a) philosopher (b) Athens (c) sculptor (d) spread

Write a summary of the passage.

Ans: Socrates was a great philosopher and teacher of Athens. He was born in 459 BC. He wanted to spread knowledge and educate the people by asking them simple questions in the streets. He became very popular with the young people. But some men in authority became jealous of him and brought two charges against him. Finally, he was killed by drinking a cup of juice of hemlock.

★ ★ Poem Summary: The Sands of Dee ['25]

Ans: In the poem, Mary is sent to call the cattle home across the sands of Dee on a stormy evening. The western wind is wild and the tide rises quickly over the sands. A thick mist comes down and hides the land, and Mary loses her way. She never comes back home. Later the fishermen find her golden hair floating in their nets. They carry her dead body across the foam to her grave beside the sea. The boatmen still seem to hear her calling the cattle home across the sands of Dee. The poem tells a sad story of the cruelty of nature.

★ Unseen Passage: Sofia (a nurse in Dhaka) ['25]

Fill in the gaps (box: passed, accommodation, result, a, benefit, live)

Ans: (a) accommodation (b) live (c) passed (d) result

★★★ Letter: To your father about your preparation for the Class IX Final Examination ['22, '24]

Panchagarh

Date:

Dear Father,

Please accept my salam. I got your letter yesterday. You wanted to know about my preparation for the Class IX Final Examination. I am glad to tell you that my preparation is going well.

I have already completed my syllabus in all subjects. Now I am revising my lessons regularly. I am giving extra time to English and Mathematics, as they are a little difficult for me. I am also solving the board questions of the previous years and practising writing answers within the given time. My teachers are helping me a lot.

I am taking care of my health and going to bed on time. Please pray for me so that I can do well in the examination. Give my salam to mother and love to my little sister.

Your loving son,

Mahmud

★★★ Application: To the principal praying for a common room ['22, '24]

Date:

To

The Principal

Kaptai Technical School and College, Rangamati

Subject: Prayer for a common room.

Sir,

With due respect, I, on behalf of the students of Class IX, beg to state that there is no common room in our institution. During tiffin period and off periods we have no place to spend our leisure time. So we move here and there or gossip in the corridor, which disturbs other classes.

A common room would give us a place to take rest, read newspapers and magazines and play indoor games like chess and carrom. It would also help us build good relationships among ourselves.

Therefore, we pray and hope that you would be kind enough to arrange a common room for us with necessary furniture, newspapers and indoor games.

Yours obediently,

Mahmuda

★★★ E-mail: To your friend describing the picnic you recently enjoyed ['22, '24]

To: milan2010@gmail.com

Subject: Our recent picnic

Dear Milan,

Hope you are well. I am writing to tell you about a wonderful picnic that we enjoyed last Friday. Our class went on a picnic to Tetulia, Panchagarh. Our teachers were with us.

We started from school by bus at 7 a.m. On the way we sang songs and enjoyed the green fields. We reached the spot at 9 a.m. From the picnic spot we could see the Kanchenjunga far away. We walked beside the river Mohananda and visited the tea gardens. At noon we had a delicious lunch of rice, chicken and dessert. In the afternoon we played games and there was a raffle draw. I won a prize! We started for home at 5 p.m. with sweet memories.

I wish you had been with us. Write to me about you.

Best wishes,

Ratan

★★★ Letter: To your friend congratulating him/her on brilliant success ['23, '25]

Panchagarh

Date:

Dear Rafi,

Hope you are well. Yesterday I got the news that you have stood first in your class in the annual examination. I am very happy to hear about your brilliant success. Please accept my heartiest congratulations.

I know you have worked very hard and studied regularly. Your success is the result of your hard work, sincerity and good behaviour. Your parents and teachers must be very proud of you. Your success has inspired me too, and I will try to follow you.

I hope you will continue this success and shine in the SSC examination. Please give my salam to your parents.

Your loving friend,

Saif

★★★ Application: To the principal/headmaster for a full-free studentship ['23, '25]

Date:

To

The Principal

Bhola Technical School and College, Bhola

Subject: Prayer for a full-free studentship.

Sir,

With due respect, I beg to state that I am a regular student of Class IX of your institution. My father is a poor farmer. He has to maintain a family of six members with his small income. So it has become very difficult for him to bear my educational expenses.

I have always been a good student. I stood first in the last annual examination. I am regular in my attendance and obedient to my teachers. I am very eager to continue my studies, but it will not be possible without your kind help.

Therefore, I pray and hope that you would be kind enough to grant me a full-free studentship and thus help me continue my studies.

Yours obediently,

Rahim

★★ E-mail: To your friend inviting her to your elder sister's marriage ceremony ['23]

To: ruma2010@gmail.com

Subject: Invitation to my elder sister's marriage

Dear Ruma,

Hope you are well. I have good news for you. The marriage ceremony of my elder sister will be held on Friday, 18 December at our house. The gaye holud programme will be held on the day before.

You are my best friend, so I want you to be with us. I have already told my parents about you, and they will be very happy to see you. Please come at least two days earlier so that we can enjoy the programme together. Please give my salam to your parents.

Waiting to see you soon.

With love,

Suma

Paragraph-এর বিষয় প্রতি বছর বদলায়, তাই নিচের চারটি ★★। প্রশ্নে দেওয়া প্রতিটি প্রশ্নের উত্তর একটি করে বাক্যে লিখলেই paragraph হয়ে যায়।

★★ Paragraph: A Village Market ['22]

A village market is a place where the people of a village and nearby areas buy and sell their daily necessities. It usually sits in an open place, under a big tree or beside a river or a road. Most markets sit once or twice a week, and some sit every afternoon. The villagers bring their own products like rice, vegetables, fish, eggs, milk and fruits to sell. They also buy oil, salt, sugar, clothes, medicine and other things they need. There are small shops, tea stalls and hawkers in the market. In the afternoon it becomes crowded and noisy. A village market is not only a place of buying and selling; it is also a meeting place. People meet friends and relatives, exchange news and discuss local matters there. It helps farmers sell their products and earn money. Thus a village market plays an important role in the economic and social life of the villagers.

★ ★ Paragraph: A Tea Stall ['23]

A tea stall is a small shop where tea and light snacks are sold. It is usually located at the corner of a road, near a market, a bus stand, a railway station or any crowded place. It is simply decorated with a few wooden benches, a small table, a kettle, some cups and glass jars full of biscuits and cakes. Sometimes there is a radio or a television. Tea, coffee, biscuits, bread, cakes and bananas are usually sold here. People of all classes come to a tea stall. They drink tea, read newspapers, gossip and discuss politics, sports and local news. So, it is an important social meeting place. It also has economic value, as it gives jobs to many poor people and helps the owner earn a living. However, a tea stall should be kept clean and smoking should be avoided there.

★ ★ Paragraph: My Reading Room ['24]

A reading room is a quiet and comfortable room where one reads and studies. Yes, I have a reading room of my own. It is situated in the south-east corner of our house. It is a medium-sized room, about 12 feet long and 10 feet wide. There are five pieces of furniture in my reading room: a reading table, a chair, a bookshelf, a small cupboard and a bed. My books are neatly arranged on the bookshelf. There is also a table lamp, a wall clock and a calendar. The room has two windows, so plenty of light and air come in. I always keep it neat and clean. I feel calm and happy in my reading room. It gives me a peaceful environment, and I can concentrate on my lessons there.

★ ★ Paragraph: A Book Fair ['25]

A book fair is a fair where publishers and booksellers display and sell different kinds of books. The biggest book fair in our country is the Amar Ekushey Book Fair. Bangla Academy organizes it every February in Dhaka, and the National Book Centre (Jatiya Grantha Kendra) also arranges book fairs in different districts. A book fair does a lot of good to people. It creates interest in reading, brings readers, writers and publishers together and helps people buy new books at a reduced price. Many types of books are available there, such as story books, novels, poems, books on science, history and religion, children's books and books for competitive exams. The fair becomes very crowded in the afternoon and evening, especially on holidays and on 21 February. A book fair is a festival of knowledge, and it helps us build a good reading habit.
